Re Pearl Bahner

Pursuant to instructions
I made calls at various music & Radio stores throughout the business section of City in endeavor to locate former employer of Pearl Bahner, but unsuccess fully.
At none visited nor she known, or had she ever worked.

Called at reported former address 128 Neilson St, Germantown, Boston. House is 2 story frame, occupied by Italians, who could give me no information of Boston family, by end fact they had no.
Worked a couple of years ago, & present address Mrs. Barton.

Made calls of neighborhood & finally learned the "Boston's", were now living at 39 Albany St.

Called at 39 Albany St & located Mrs. Barton residing on 2nd floor near of 3 story & stone house directly behind Pearl Bahner. made her home with her on 2nd floor 128 Neilson St.

for a period of about 7 months. That she was placed to board here by her father, who was a "no good sustabon" Drunkard & Shiftless without character or dependance.
The Pearl too was Shiftless & lazy & never could or would hold a job of any kind, longer than a few days at most. That her companions so far as known, were of some type. That she was wholly unreliable & a great liar, whose word never could be taken.

Mr. Boston has never seen Pearl Poulter since sometime previous to this trouble & knows of no person or place where information concerning her present whereabouts might be learned.
Says she never worked in a music store. That she did work but two (2) days for a manufacturer of musical instruments, some where on George Road.
Said to have a sister, May, married to a man named Thomas M.
Mannino. They reside at 24 Hoydock St, Rahway, N.J. Mannino said to be employed by Shapino Broo, Frickmen, Broad St, as a Driver.

Located Shapino Broo, wholesale
